Low Tide is a second floor, newly refurbished apartment (accessed by stairs and modern lift) offering fantastic views over the River Esk and the Marina. It sleeps four people in two bedrooms, one twin facing the river and one double. Both are of a good size and are well equipped to Shoreline's usual high standard, as is the bathroom with over bath electric shower.

The sitting room (including Sky Free to View), dining area and kitchen are open plan, offering an intimate living space for family and friends. The kitchen is equipped to an excellent standard and has the facilities required to create your seaside meals. Please note that this apartment has no dishwasher due to space constraints but does have a washer/drier in the property.

Low Tide is adjacent to another of our apartments, High Tide which makes for a great combined space for families wanting to be together but wishing to retain some personal space.

A parking space is available directly outside the apartment providing easy access. Shops and restaurants are around 10 minutes walk away, while the railway station is a mile away.
